The CAMPBELL Cottage is named after Albert L. Campbell, “a man of many hats”. Mr. Campbell was born in Kalamazoo County in 1851 and grew up on the family farm in Texas Township, attending schools in that district. He wore many hats during his life in Texas Township: school teacher, farmer, postmaster, Township Clerk and more. The cottage bearing his name has a great flow and a cozy feel. It features main floor living with the option for additional living space on the lower level.
