Julia Mills Morton was an important and respected teacher in the Texas Township community in the mid 1800's. The JULIA Cottage bears her name as a tribute for having been a resident of Almena Township since moving there with her family in 1840, educated in this area and being a successful teacher in Kalamazoo and VanBuren County Schools. Her husband, Owen P. Morton, was also a product of Texas Township and served as Township Supervisor in 1878. The Julia Cottage has a wonderful flow with areas that open to the deck and community area, spacious bedroom and master, natural light and options to add space by finishing the upstairs and/or the lower level.
